The Little Church with a BIG Heart!

We all have been very excited about something. We also have all felt overwhelmed by something as well. The same brain functions create the same response. So, what causes me to lose the feeling of excitement and feel overwhelmed? It's how I start thinking about the event.

When you focus on your problems instead of trusting God, you're going to end up exhausted. And you're going to be defeated because God didn't design you to fight your battles alone. You don't have the power you need to face every problem in your own strength. You need God's power.

You can't focus on your problems and focus on God at the same time. You've got to shift your focus to who God is and what he's promised to do for you.

Life is full of experiences that test you, drain you, and wipe you out. When you are worn out, that's when you're ready to say to God, "I'm sorry. I can't handle this situation, and I've tried everything. I need to give it to you because it's bigger than me."

So, what should you do when you are overwhelmed? You stand strong.

Standing strong is an attitude of quiet confidence in the character of God. You will be successful when you put your trust in what he says to you through his Word and the Holy Spirit. When you get with God, you'll never have to give up ground because you are standing strong.

When the burden is overwhelming, you may be tempted to cave in under the pressure. God doesn't want you to back down from difficult situations. He doesn't want you to sacrifice your integrity. God wants you to trust him through the challenges and learn from them. If you run, you'll miss out on learning from God. And chances are, you'll need to repeat that lesson.

God is committed to your success. But you need to focus on him and trust him and his Word if you want to stand your ground.

The Bible says.....

"Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Prov 3:5-6.
